Does your horse ZIG when you want him to ZAG?!

Whether your interest is Versatility Ranch Horse, Cowboy Challenges, Cattle Events, Mountain Trail Competitions, Trail Trials, or trail riding and working outside, you will walk away from these clinics with a new & exciting approach to bring out the best in your horse & your overall performance.

Clinic content includes:

- ◆ In-depth and informative sessions aimed at giving riders valuable yet simple tools to handle any "scary" obstacle, be it in a competition situation or riding outside.
- ◆ Effective leg and rein aid communication to negotiate any obstacle regardless of degree of difficulty. Learn fundamental horsemanship skills required for controlling challenging situations with confidence and for maneuvering difficult obstacles such as water crossings, rocky terrain, logs, bridges, gates, and other tips to help your horse become fine tuned, respectful, and a willing working partner.
- ◆ Learn to use the horses natural curiosity and draw to replace fear with confidence and courage.
- ◆ Trail riding etiquette sessions will give you "inside" tips to help ensure you and your horse will be a welcome addition to any group ride or cowboy crew. Techniques to calm trail spooks and jittery horses and riders.
- ◆ Practical application work includes riding high desert and mountain wilderness trails, sandy beaches, or rolling hills as offered by clinic location.
- ◆ Sessions targeting judged competition situations include; understanding what the judge is looking for, showmanship style and pattern memorization, tips for flawless moves to enhance your performance, and relaxation techniques to calm show jitters and nervous horses.
- ◆ Versatility Ranch Horse clinics focus on Ranch Cutting, Ranch Working Cowhorse, Ranch Trail, Ranch Riding and Ranch Conformation. Learn the aspects of the game and join the ranks of riders flocking to these fast growing competitions.

~ ~ Sessions are also applicable to riders whose interest does not include competition! ~ ~
